

The FY2010 Legislative Branch Appropriations Bill provides for the operations of the legislative branch, including both Houses of Congress, Congressional Budget Office, Government Accountability Office, Library of Congress, Government Printing Office, and Capitol Police. This years conference agreement included a Continuing Resolution to continue funding past the end of the previous fiscal year, with adjustments made to VA medical programs, The Census, The Postal Service and other matters.

---

{loadposition left}